THE BALLOONERY, MELBOURNE

(03) 9699 1155
3/90 Market Street, South Melbourne

Jean-Michel has been the owner and designer at The Ballooney for 26 years and has tried to incorporate lights with his balloon displays for almost as long and was never satisfied ... until now!

Feature a floating table centrepiece balloon with its own lighting inside at your simcha, where you can remotely control the lights to set the mood, with 13 colours and a variety of fades and flashes to choose from. Start the night with a blue or pink balloon, and when the formalities are over, you can easily turn up the fun with disco light flashes. While its great to see one balloon changing colour, the magic truly happens when all the balloons in a room change colour asynchronously.

SNAP PRINTING, MELBOURNE

(03) 9532 8417
www.caulfieldsouth.snap.com.au

Caulfield Snap has installed a new technology called sleeking that allows for the creation of spectacular invitations that feature smooth-as-silk printing, the ability for spot gloss, and silver, gold and a wide range of coloured foiling.

Snap has also installed a machine to provide round corners on invitations, book and business cards for that unique look.

FIVE STONES MARGARET RIVER

(08) 9755 7402
www.kosherwine.com.au

Treat your adult guests to Five Stone's newest wine, a delicate Sparkling Rosé called the Méthode Traditionelle Cerise.

Hand-crafted from estate-grown Shiraz and Cabernet, and bottled fermented using traditional methods, the wine is produced under the supervision of Kosher Australia.

As its name suggests, it is a vibrant pink wine, with a bright and fresh nose with raspberry, cream and musk characters. On the palate, mouth-filling red berry fruit flavours are complemented with a creamy texture and supported by a fine bead.

A colourful addition to any celebration, the Cerise will complement a wide range of cuisine and is particularly suited to tapas-style menus.
