OUR STORY

Gate Uniques is a South Australian based sterling silver Jewellery Company, headed up by designer Annette Coleman. Annette's creativity and expressive thinking produces collectable sterling silver pieces that are elegant and symbolic. The production process uses world class sterling silver craftsmen to bring the unique designs to life.

BESPOKE DESIGNS

The simple elegance and quality commitment behind the Gate Unique's design philosophy ensures all our pieces transcend the boundary of fashion. The resulting 'stories' are worn with pride everyday and for many generations – a value that many corporates, schools, universities (even global companies) have been inviting Annette to capture and craft to their own bespoke story.

LINCOLN'S STORY

Lincoln College were celebrating an anniversary year and came upon the idea of not only selling memorabilia pendants, but also as gifts to key people, alumni and fellows - a brilliant stroke of marketing from Lincoln College - a cost effective and emotional way of advertising directly to each person...

THE PROCESS IS SIMPLE...

STEP 1

Annette and the school representatives will meet to discuss the school's history, motto, ethos and culture (in the past many a school captain or student of influence have also been involved in this first step).

STEP 2

Ideas will become designs - Annette will offer up to 3 designs from discussions that are included in the quote, making the discussion process very important.

STEP 3

Once a design is settled on, a sample will be made for approval. A second sample can also be made, but is not included in the quote.
